To

The General Secretary to the Government of

H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to correspondence ending with Government Order No. G.357-8/Med.110-34-6 dated 13th/16th July 1935, sanctioning a condonation of a deficiency of one year in the service of Mr. M.G. Deendayal Singh, L.M.S., late District Medical Officer, Hassan, I have the honor to forward herewith for consideration, a representation in original received from him requesting that a furtner deficiency of 10 months and 17 days may also be condoned so that he may earn his full pension. The circumstances under which Mr. Deendayal Singh prays for a special consideration of his prayer for the condonation of a period of 10 months and 17 days in excess of the period ordinarily admissible under the Mysore Service Regulations has been explained in detail.

I think that in view of the facts mentioned by Mr. Deendayal Singh, and of the fact that he could not be recommended for the grant of any extension of service in the exegencies of service, his request for the grant of full pension deserves special consideration.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

S. Subba Rao.

5) The whole trouble in this case is that the officer was retired when he had yet to render some short service to enable him to earn full pension (half his average emoluments). According to the pension rules the pension admissible for 23 and 24 years' service is 23/60 and 24/60 of the average emoluments respectively, while that for 25 years' service is 30/60 or half the average emoluments. In the present case, the officer's net qualifying service at the age of 55 was 23 years, 1 month and 12 days, and under Article 272 M.S.R. a deficiency of one year in service (the maximum period that could be condoned) was condoned. The officer was thus granted a pension of Rs 164-1-0 (24/60 of the average emoluments) for a service of 24 years. For a service of 25 years the pension admissible is Rs 205 i.e., Rs 41 more. The difference is really large and if the officer had been granted an extension of 10 months and 18 days he would have been eligible for a pension of Rs 205 against Rs 164-1-0 now granted to him. His grievance is therefore real and is due to the Government not giving him a short extension of 11 months and in retiring him when this deficiency in service would make a large difference in his pension.

NOTE—Contn Sheet.

WD 03594—GPB—30,000—18-7-35

I am at a loss to suggest any remedy in this case, though I feel that the case is really hard and requires sympathetic treatment and the hardship is due to his having been retired while he had yet to render a short period of service to earn full pension. It would have been in conformity with the spirit of the M.S.R. if the Administrative Department had given him an extension of a few months which was required to enable him to earn full pension.

The maximum concession admissible under Article 272 M.S.R. viz., condonation of one year's service has already been sanctioned and the rules in the M.S.R. are absolute and do not permit the condonation of a longer period and in no case has a period more than one year been condoned.

It is most undesirable to sanction a special or arbitrary pension as each case will become a very inconvenient precedent.

9) In any case this is a matter for consideration of the Administrative Branch and Govt and the Financial Department is generally not agreeable to sanctioning anything more than what is admissible under the rules.

10) Some cases in which arbitrary or special pensions have been sanctioned are noted below:-

Final Note by the Second Member of Council.

Subject.—

Proposal to grant an arbitrary pension to Mr.M.G. Deendayal Singh, retired District Medical Officer.

These papers relate to the representation of Mr. M.G. Deendayal Singh, retired District Medical Officer, regarding his pension.

Mr. Deendayal Singh was retired from service from 24th December 1934 on his attaining the age of fifty five years. He had put in a net qualifying service of 23 years, one month and 12 days, and under Art. 272, Mysore Service Regulations, a deficiency of one year in service was condoned in Government Order No.G.357-8/Med.110-34-6 dated the 16th July 1935. The officer was thus granted a pension of Rs.164-1-0 for a service of 24 years. He has now requested that a further deficiency of 10 months and 18 days might also be condoned so that he might earn full pension, viz., Rs.205. The Senior Surgeon supports Mr. Deendayal Singh's request.

The maximum period that could be condoned under Art. 272 is one year and the rules in the Mysore Service Regulations do not permit the condonation of a longer period. The Financial Secretary feels that the case is really hard and requires sympathetic treatment and that the hardship is due to the officer having been retired while he had yet to render a short period of service to earn full pension.

The question was considered at the meeting of the Council held on the 23rd April 1936 when it was resolved that "an arbitrary pension of Rs.205 per mensem may be sanctioned to Mr.Deendayal Singh".

The recommendation of the Council may be graciously approved.

To The Senior Surgeon,

Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your No C. 1960-12 dated 8/12/1935 forwarding order No FL 4293-4/S&A 338-35-2 dated 20/21.11.1935 informing me that a pension of Rupees One hundred and Sixty four & anna one per mensem is granted to me with effect from 24.12.1934 I respectfully beg to represent the following for kind and favourable consideration of the Government.

I joined service on 11.11.1911 and was ordered to retire from it from 24.12.1934, hence the total service as approved as mentioned in order No FL 4293-4/S&A 338-35-2 dated 20/21.11.1935 consists of (1) Six years one month and Twenty days of non gazetted service and (2) 16 years 11 months & 23 days of Gazetted service and in this I have been in the Surgeons grade from 2.7.29 up to the date of my retirement on 24.12.1934 and so I have been in the Surgeons grade for about 5 years 5 months adding to this one year of condonation long service vide order No G. 35-7-8 Med 110-34-6 dated 13/16 Jan 1935 granted as permissible under the rules, the total amount of service will be 24 years 1 month & 20 days which falls short by ten months & seventeen days only for twenty five years service, the period of service required for full pension in my case. Thus for this want of 10 months & 17 days more service, I am granted a pension of Rs 164-1— per mensem which means that I would be getting about Rupees Thirty six (Rs 36) less throughout my pensioned life for which I shall have to pine over every month I draw my pension instead of being happy in my last days.

While expressing my gratitude to the Government for the kind considerations extended to me so far that the little deficiency arises from special circumstances incidental to recruitment to the medical department and a kind glance to the old civil lists of about 25 years ago may show that medical men could enter service often much later than their compeers in Revenue and other departments.

In view of this disability (2) the fact that in my devotion to my duties I have denied myself the concessions admissable under leave rules, and have taken only only about three months of Privelege leave in all these long years of my service (3) the Senior-Surgeon finding that he could not recommend me for a years extension of Service which I richly deserved in my opinion (a) by my good and zealous work (b) and my good physique, and that I would be hard hit, the Senior Surgeon has kindly recommended me for full pension as a special case vide letter No C1834-1 dated 12/2/1935 of the Senior-Surgeon recommending for reasons stated therein that full pension may be sanctioned & this officer condoning as a special case the deficiency in his service.

(4) When the benevolent Dewan Saheb was touring in Hassan District in the year 1934, I had the good fortune & hear from him direct on the eve of his departure from Sikere that he was glad & see me popular in my district: and then I put this difficulty of mine regarding my pension, I was ordered & see the Senior Surgeon - He has recommended me for full pension knowing that he could not recommend me for extension of one years service as he had already submitted his proposals to the Government recommending suitable & bestowed on those in my place after my retirement.

(5) I am retired from Service simply on account of superannuation.

Under the circumstances explained above I beg & submit that the benevolent Government of Mysore would be pleased & condone as a special case another year of my service only for purpose of calculating the average emoluments of pay drawn for 36 months for pension purposes and grant me full pension and thus save me from pining over the otherwise hard hit loss of about Rs 36— per mensem for simple want of service of about 10 months & 17 days (ten months & seventeen days) more, when my retirement is due & superannuation only, and thus render my pensioned life happy.

I have the Honor &c,

The Second Member of Council,

Sir,

I respectfully beg & represent that the Senior Surgeon in his Letter No C1634-1 dated 12.2.1935 has recommended for reasons stated therein "that full pension may be sanctioned to this Officer, condoning as a special case, the deficiency in his service". Since they have condoned only one year of deficiency in my service, the pension is cut short by 20 per cent for every month. As per regulations of pension calculation for 24 years of my so far reckoned service, the pension is 24/60 of average emoluments, which amounts to Rs 164-1- per mensem, whereas for 25 years service, in my case, pension would be calculated as half of average emoluments, and so the pension would amount to about Rs 205-- per mensem. This great difference of about Rs 40 per mensem arises on account of the remaining shortage of service of less than a year i.e. about 10 months & 17 days. I therefore pray that the benign Government of Mysore would generously be pleased to condone this remaining shortage of service further, only for purpose of pension calculations, and grant me full pension, as my immediate superior officer, the Senior-Surgeon has recommended my case to the Government as stated above. Further Article No 435 of the Mysore Service Regulations provides that "When special circumstances appear to justify a departure from the rules laid down regarding "ordinary pensions" Government may grant an arbitrary fixed sum rather than than an exact proportion of the amount to which it might be supposed that the rules afford a claim." As this aptly applies in my hard case, I pray that the benevolent Government would graciously condone the still remaining little deficiency of my service, which is less than even a year, only for the purpose of pension calculations, and grant me full pension or at least an arbitrary one equal to about Rs 205— per mensem and thus enable a devoted pensioned servant of the Government to spend the rest of his days in a reasonable degree of happiness & comfort.

That my case deserves special consideration may be seen by :-

(1) The very fact that my immediate Superior Officer is convinced of my case being a hard one & deserved a departure from the rules laid down for grant of ordinary pensions, has recommended my case to the Government & sanction full pension to me, condoning as a special case the deficiency in my service vide his letter No C1834-1 dt 12.2.1935 of the Senior Surgeon.

(2) By the partial condonation of the deficiency of my service, the pension is cut short by 20 per cent i.e about Rs 40— per mensem, out of a small pension which hits me very hard.

(3) I have taken about three months Privilege leave in all my long, devoted and abroad continuous active service and so have foregone about 20 months of Privilege leave and 3½ years of furlough which may be taken at kind consideration to condone the remaining little deficiency to make up 25 years qualified service for pension purposes.

(4) In the year 1934, when the Diwan Saheb was touring in the Hassan District, on the eve of his departure from Arsikere, I had the good fortune to hear from him, that he was pleased to see me popular in my district, and when I put this difficulty of my pension I was ordered to see the Senior - Surgeon, who could not recommend me for extension of one years' service, as he had already submitted his proposals to the Government for bestowing surgeonship on others in my place & on my retirement. In the absence of his recommending for extension of service, he has recommended for full condonation pension. I conjecture that he could not do better under the then existing circumstances.

(5) I dare say that I have done all my service to the entire satisfaction of all the various officers under whom I was placed from time to time & who would have reported about me confidentially departmentally.

(6) Medical men about 25 years ago, to which time I belong, had often to join service at a later age than their compeers in the Revenue & other departments, a kind glance to old civil history about 25 years may show this.

(7) An extension of service for a period less than a year would have helped me a good deal to make me easily eligible for full pension. I am even now fit for active service. The Senior-Surgeon could not recommend me for an extension in the circumstances he seems to have been placed in at that time.

8) I had been in the Surgeons grade for over 5 years and before my retirement on 24/12/34, I was Surgeon V^th class drawing Rs 400 per month & so deserve a pension of at least Rs 200 per month.

(9) by retirement is due & superannuation.

Total service is as follows:-

	years	months	days
Order No. H.L. 4293-48+H 338-85-2 dated 20/24.11.1935 regards Non Gazetted service rendered from 11-11-1911 the date of my joining service as Sub. Assistant-Surgeon & 1.1.1918 the date of my promotion & Assistant-Surgeon 2nd grade as admissible for pension calculations.	6	1	20
Order No. G. 35-7-8 Med: 110-34-6 dated 1/3/16.7.35 condones one year service.	1	—	—
From 1.1.1918 & 2.7.1929 Assistant-Surgeon.	11	6	1
From 2.7.1929 & 15-1-1934 Surgeon VI class on Rs 400 per mensem	4	6	13
From 15-1-1934 promoted & Surgeon V class acting on Rs 450 P.M. & 15-5-34.	0	4	—
From 15.5.34 & 14.9.1934 temporary Surgeon V Class on Rs 450 per mensem and from 14.9.34 & 24-12-1934 Surgeon V 2nd class permanent on Rs 450 per mensem on which salary I retired.	0	7	9

Total qualifying service for pension = years 24 months one and thirteen days.

Deducting from 25 years service required for full pension, this 24 years one month & 13 days service reckoned for pension calculations, the balance of 10 months & 17 days a period less than even a year is the shortage of service still left on which account the pension is cut short by Rs 40 per mensem i.e. 20 per cent of monthly pension.

Three years average salary counted for purpose of pension calculations is as follows:-

	Rs	as	ps
From 24-12-1931 & 24-12-1932 on salary of Rs 400 per mensem	= 4800	—	—
From 24-12-1932 & 24-12-1933 " " " " " "	= 4800	—	—
From 24-12-1933 & 31-12-1933 " " " " " "	103	3	7 1/31
From 1/1/34 & 15/5/34 " " " " " "	= 1793	8	9 3/31
From 15/5/1934 & 24-12-1934 " " " Rs 450 per mensem	3266	2	0 24/31

Therefore the total emoluments for three years is Rs 14762-14-5 3/31 and the average monthly emolument is Rs 410-1-3

Pension calculated on this for 25 years of service = Rs 205-

Pension calculated on reckoned 24 years of service = 164-1-

The difference in the pension every month = Rs 40-15-which is about 20 per cent less pension every month which hits hard.

While expressing my gratitude & the benign Government for kind consideration so far extended to me, I pray that this little deficiency of service still left to make up 25 years service to ake full pension may be further condoned and grant me full pension

Under the circumstances explained above, I pray that the benign Government of Mysore would be pleased to condone the further remaining deficiency in my service of about 10 months & 17 days, a period even less than a year, to make up 25 years service in all, for purpose of pension calculations; and grant me either full pension of about Rs 20/- per mensem, or an arbitrary one equal to about Rs 20/- per mensem, treating my case as a special one, as otherwise by partial condonation of service by one year, the pension is cut short by 20 per cent every month i.e. about Rs 40 — per mensem which hits me very hard. The special circumstances explained in pages 2, 3 & 4, justifies a little departure from the rules regarding ordinary pensions for granting an arbitrary fixed sum, rather than the exact proportion of the amount to which it might be supposed that the rules afford a claim, vide Article No 435 of Mysore Service Regulations. Besides the Senior-Surgeon in his Letter No C 1834-1 dated 12-2-1935 has recommended for reasons stated therein "that full pension may be sanctioned to this officer, condoning as a special case, the deficiency in his service."

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

[illegible] Seendzalsingh,

Retired District Medical & Sanitary Officer of Hassan District

No.

From K. G. Deendayal Singh
Retired District Medical & Sanitary Officer, of Hassan District
No 1175 Krishnaraj Road, Chamarajpuram
Mysore.

To The Dewan of Mysore,
Bangalore.

Sir, I most respectfully beg to represent, that as per pension rules my qualifying pension per mensem, for 25 years service would be half of the monthly average emoluments, amounting to about Rupees Two Hundred and Five a month, whereas by the partial condonation of the deficiency of my service, the Government have been so far pleased to reckon 24 years of service, and accordingly have bestowed on me a pension of Rs 164-1-0 per mensem, since the calculation for 24 years of service will be 24/60 that is 2/5th of monthly average emoluments, instead of 1/2 of the monthly average emoluments, should my service have been reckoned as 25 years service; and by this, my pension is cut short by about Rupees Forty per mensem, that is to say, by about Twenty per cent of the pension every month which hits one hard. This great difference in the pension arises on account of less service of ten months & Seventeen days remaining to be further condoned - I therefore pray for graciously condoning it and grant me either full pension as per the rules then afford a claim to, or grant an arbitrary pension equal to about Rupees Two Hundred and Five per mensem, as my case is especially a very hard one, and thus enable me to spend the rest of my days in a reasonable degree of happiness and comfort. In my case Article 435 & 305 of the Mysore Service Regulations meditates this indulgence.

That my case is a very hard one and deserves special consideration, may be seen from some of the facts, I have tried to state here under:-

(1) The very fact that my immediate superior officer the Senior-Surgeon being convinced of my deserving special consideration, has in his Letter No C 1834-1 dated 12.2.1934, recommended for reasons stated therein "that full pension may be sanctioned to this officer, condoning as a special case, the deficiency in his service."

(2) As they have condoned this deficiency partially, the pension is cut short by about Rupees Forty per mensem which means a shortage by Twenty per cent of the pension every month which hits me very hard in my old age.

(3) In the year 1934, when the benevolent Dewan Saheb was touring in the Hassan District, and on the eve of his departure from Arsikere, I had the good fortune to hear from him, that he was glad to see me popular in my district and when I represented to him, the difficult situation of my pension, if I were retired then without granting an extension and condonation of service, I was ordered to see the Senior-Surgeon who said that he had already sent in his recommendations for the bestowal of Surgeonship on others on my retirement. As he could not recommend me for an extension of service, in the situation he was placed in then, and in the absence of such recommendation, he seemed to have felt that my case was a very hard one and so has indulgently recommended me in his Letter No C 1834-1 dated 12.2.1934 for reasons stated therein "that full pension may be sanctioned to this officer, condoning, as a special case, the deficiency in his service."

(4). In my devation to my duties, I have denied myself the concession under leave rules, as I have taken only about three months of privilege leave in the whole of my long active service; and as such, I have foregone to the credit of the government about Twenty months privilege leave and more than Three and Half years of furlough, which may be kindly taken into generous consideration now to lessen the hardship of my case.

(5) I dare say, that I have done all this long continuous active service to the entire satisfaction of the various officers, under whom I was placed to work from time to time, as well as of the patients & people with whom I came in contact with. A kind perusal to the confidential reports of the various officers under whom I have worked may show their appreciation of my service as recorded.

(6) I joined service in the Bombay Medical Department in 1911. About 25 years ago, medical men often joined service later in their life, than their confreres in the Revenue & other departments. A kind glance to the civil lists of about 25 years ago may show this, and as such this little more deficiency in my service being due to my being an old servant of the state, to whom concessions and considerations were being shown in difficult situations to render their lives happy, by granting extensions in service; but as the rules have been changed now and I was ordered to retire from service from the date of my superannuation, my pension is much reduced for the rest of my life, hence it deserves to be treated as a special case.

(7) I have been in the Surgeons grade for more than five years, and I was Fifth Class Surgeon on Rs 450 per mensem before my retirement on 26.12.1934 & the pension granted is very small considering my grade, hence deserves to be treated specially.

(8) My retirement is due to Superannuation. when I was fit for further service in my opinion.

(9) In my case even Article No 435 of the Mysore Service Regulations aptly applies as it states that "When special circumstances appear to justify a departure from the rules laid down regarding "ordinary pensions" Government may grant an arbitrarily fixed sum rather than an exact proportion of the amount to which it might be supposed that the rules afford a claim.

While expressing my gratitude to the benign Government of Mysore for all the kind considerations so far extended to me, I pray that the still remaining little shortage of my service of ten months & seventeen days may be further condoned to make up Twenty Five years of service as a special case, only for the purpose of pension calculations, by taking in to kind and generous consideration the special circumstances of my case which I have tried to explain on pages number Two, Three and Four of this representation, and grant me either full pension that would be then admissible under the rules or grant an arbitrarily fixed pension amounting to about Rupees Two Hundred and Five only per mensem, which gift and power of bestowing on me, the Almighty God has bestowed on the generous and benevolent Dewan of Mysore, to whom may God grant good health, longivity, and prosperity.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Bangalore
